finding out

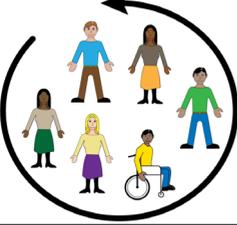

Come along to our online events running between 11th and 16th October 2021 and find out more about working in the NHS.

representative

Representatives from some North East NHS Trusts, the North East Ambulance service and the local authority will be there.

diversity

We want our workplaces to be inclusive and are holding these events to promote our jobs, particularly to those who identify as ethnic minority and disabled.

ask for information

In the sessions you can:

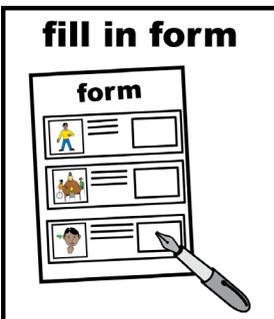

- Speak to our staff.

- View our current jobs.

- Learn how to set up job alert emails for the jobs you're interested in.

- Learn how to complete a good application form.

- Find about our volunteering opportunities.

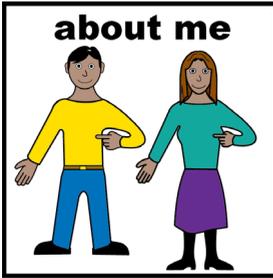

Staff who work for us will be available to answer any questions.

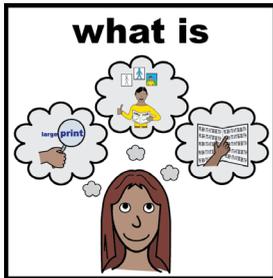

We will have workshops throughout the week where you can work in groups. They include:

- An introduction to jobs in the NHS and local authority.

- Seeing your strengths – helping you see what you can bring to the NHS and local authority.

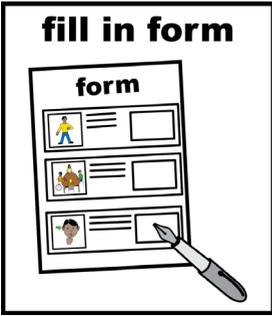

- What support we can give you. Positive about disability scheme and reasonable adjustments in the workplace.

- Staff stories – what is it like working for the NHS and local authority.

- NHS jobs website – how to find jobs and sign up.

- Completing a job application form.

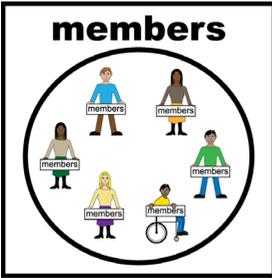

- Interview skills, competency and value based questions.

- Applying for local authority jobs.

We are supportive employers.

We have staff networks who can support you.

Dedicated Health and Wellbeing support.

Fantastic education, training and development.
